

“Do Not Disturb” Sign

Point of the Assignment: 1) Give you a tool for setting boundaries with other people, give you an opportunity to use kinesthetic learning, and to customize this tool for their own use. 2) To practice tailoring your message to your audience.

Instructions:

You will create your own “Do Not Disturb” sign for use at home or wherever you do homework. When creating this tool, be sure to take into consideration any cultural (i.e. parents may be offended) or language concerns (i.e. non-English speakers at home). Your goal is to communicate to your living mates that you need peace and quiet to get your homework done. Feel free to customize your tool to reflect your own taste and/or personality.

You have three options:

1. Create a door hanger from materials provided
2. Create your own door hanger from your own materials
3. Create a sign from your own materials to put on your door, table, or other workspace

Note: You must attach a copy of your sign, or personally show it to your instructor, to receive credit for this assignment.
