Read the Article: “Alumna Sues School Because She Hasn’t Found a Job”ⁱ Answer the following questions. Be sure to especially answer #1, 2, 11. For the rest, if you don’t know the answer, then write, “I don’t know.” Use additional sheets of paper if necessary.

What is your overall response to this article?

If you were a prospective employer, how would you respond to her attitude?

List at least three unknown variables related to this article.

With the information given, list at least three attitudes you suspect contributed to her situation.

List at least three obstacles (clearly stated and not stated) interfering with her getting a job.

List at least three assignments you were given in this class that addressed those obstacles? How do they address those obstacles?

List at least three campus resources designed to address those potential obstacles. How do they help?

What could she have done differently while she was a student to minimize the likelihood she would wind up in this situation? Give at least three responses.

Many people in this situation just decide to go into graduate school to compensate for their lack of work experience. What obstacles do you anticipate she will run into if she were to try this approach?

Get the document, “Class Review and Application – Instructor’s Application.” Review your response above, and the responses provided by your instructor. Then answer the following: What can you do to minimize the likelihood that you will wind up where she is when you graduate? Give at least three responses.

What is your overall response to doing this task?
